Revised estimates fixed the loss at $150,000.

The fact that the fire appeared to break out in several places at once and the rapidity with which it spread were the chief reasons for the belief

The aggregate of these levies exceeded the ten mill exterior limitation of the Smith tax law. The court upheld the action of the Lucas county budget commission in reducing the council's levies to conform to the Smith act.

Canada Favors Draft

Unionists Win Two-Thirds of Seats in Canadian Parliament.

A Half Million of Canada's Women Vote on Big Issues Monday.

MONTREAL, DEC 18—Conscription has been overwhelmingly confirmed and the union government, headed by Sir Robt. Borden, has been returned, according to latest returns today from Canada.

With 16 districts to be heard from and four deferred, the official count early today showed that the Unionists have won 128 seats and the opposition 87.

All returns indicate that the French population of Canada voted heavily for Sir Wilfred Laurier and that the English vote rallied solidly to maintain premier Borden in office.

The voting was heavy in all districts.

While the civilian vote alone insure the enforcement of the selective draft law, already on the statutes, the soldier vote abroad which will not be ascertained for some days, will prove that conscription was endorsed overwhelmingly.

It is estimated that half a million women voted yesterday.

The province of Quebec, returned Sir Wilfred Laurier to a Quebec seat.

Registrants Must Report Promptly Or Lose Rights

—SAYS CALLAHAN

Coshocton attorneys who are giving freely and without remuneration, of their time and efforts in aiding the Coshocton county registrants to fill out the questionnaires were complaining Tuesday that registrants are taking their own time in appearing for the work without consideration for the attorneys.

Three hundred questionnaires have been mailed to as many registrants and only 45 o that number had shown up at the court room Tuesday noon. Five attorneys were on hand Monday evening to take care of the registrants between seven and nine o'clock, and only one registrant showed up.

The attorneys protest against this delay which they can not believe necessary, and urge each registrant to report immediately, or not later than the evening of the same day the questionnaire is received.

It was pointed out by Clerk John Callahan of the local draft board Tuesday that many of the registrants are apparently waiting until the Saturday afternoon half holiday to have their blanks filled out. The utter uselessness of this course was emphasized. "It is very apparent that the attorneys will be swamped Saturday at the present rate, and many who have put off this important duty are doomed to disappointment unless they come in at once. Inability to have their blanks filled out Saturday will not constitute an excuse in the opinion of the law, and valuable rights are in danger of being lost to the registrant who delays this important action." Callahan said today.

FIVE PERCENT OF MEN AT CAMP SHERMAN TO SPEND XMAS AT HOME

(BULLETIN)

(International News Service)

CAMP SHERMAN, DEC. 18.—The war department today ordered Major Gen. Glenn, commandant of Camp Sherman to cut the number of Xmas furloughs from 20 to 5 percent of the camp's population. This means that 2,000 instead of 10,000 drafted men will be allowed to go home. The order applies to officers also.

(International News Service)

CAMP SHERMAN, O., DEC 18.—Despite announcement in the press of orders issued at Washington withof orders issued at Washington withholding Xmas furloughs to men not within trolley distance of cantonments, division headquarters was preparing today to let 30 percent or about 10,000 men, go home for Xmas.

Major B. B. McCroskey, assistant chief of staff, said no order has been received by the division restricting passes. The furlough will be good from Saturday noon until Wednesday.

The 83rd division went on record today as the first division of conscripted men to put a trench mortar battery in action. The mortar, made at a local railroad shop, is capable of firing 37 shots a minute. British army officers here said 30 shots a minute was creditable work.

The battery can fire at any range between 10 and 100 yards.

MAY CLOSE ICE PLANTS TO CONSERVE AMMONIA

COLUMBUS, DEC 18.—The government is taking steps to restrict the use of ammonia, which is an important factor in the making of war munitions, and this will affect the operation of the artificial ice plants. H. D. Merrill, who is at the head of the federal chemical department, has taken the matter up with the ice manufacturing companies and this action will undoubtedly result in the closing down for the winter season [illegible] of a number of plants in all the large cities.

[illegible] Norvell, head of the City Ice Delivery Co. of Cleveland has been placed in charge of [illegible] movement in the district east of the Mississippi river and Mr. Merrill [illegible] chairman of the [illegible] Ice Co. here will lay the matter before [illegible] to be held at the [illegible] Thursday. Plants located in Dayton, Xenia, [illegible] Newark, Delaware, Coshocton, Lancaster and other central Ohio cities have been asked to send representatives.

"[illegible] will undoubtedly result in a number of the plants being shut down for at this season of the year one or two plants can supply all the demand while in the summer season the entire capacity is not too much," said Mr Kinnaird Monday.

RUSSIAN PREMIER IS LEADING BIG FORCE AGAINST PETROGRAD

Copenhagen Paper Does Not State Whether Kerensky is Aiding Cossacks Or Conducting Separate Revolt—Reports are Conflicting.

COPENHAGEN, DEC. 18—Former Premier Kerensky, of Russia, has taken the field against the Bolsheviki forces and is marching towards Petrograd, according to a dispatch printed in the Berlingske Tidende today. The dispatch added that Kerensky has several thousand men.

Bolsheviki forces, supported by armed motor cars, were said to be on their way to give battle. Whether Kerensky is co-operating with the cossacks or whether he is leading a new counter revolution is not known.

Kerensky has been reported at various places during the past month. Once he was said to be hiding in Finland, another report has him under arrest in Russia. The latest had him accepting the post of minister of justice in the independent government set up in Siberia.

LONDON, DEC. 18.—Four former members of the Russian government were arrested by the Bolsheviki today according to dispatches from Petrograd quoting official news agency. Those arrested were M. Pepine, former manager of the general treasury; M. Skovordsoff, M. Chatslabanoff and M. Balabanoff, former directors of the ministry of finance.

The men were taken into custody it was said because of request of the upper class.

Swedish sources say the Bolsheviki government evidently fearing hindrance to its plans are carrying on affairs at Petrograd with a high hand arresting great numbers of persons daily.

HOUSE ADOPTS PROHIBITION BY 282 TO 128

Measure Receives 25 More Votes Than Necessary Two-Thirds.

SENATE MAY DEFER ACTION ON MEASURE

Senator Sheppard Confident Upper House Will Concur in Proposed Changes.

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, DEC. 18—The Senate this afternoon agreed to the House amendments to the S heppard resolution. The measure was sent to the White House to receive the President's signature. The action of the Senate was taken by a rising vote. Vice President Marshall announced the count to be 47 to 8. Senator Borah, of Idaho, altho a "dry" launched a fight against the House amendments. He claimed them to be clearly unconstitutional and predicted they might invalidate the whole measure. He insisted that Congress had no right to fix a time limit for ratification by the states.

WASHINGTON DEC 18.—Final action on the Sheppard resolution to submit nation wide prohibition to vote of the states may be sidetracked until after the holidays. This probability appeared today when Senator Sheppard of Texas, author of the resolution, asked the senate to concur in the amendments written into the resolution just before its adoption by the house yesterday. The senate is under agreement to adjourn this afternoon until Jan 3. One objection [illegible] the consideration of the resolution as amended by the house and it would be impossible to bring it up again until after the holiday recess.

Crozier has testified that there were no shortages of note. The American expeditionary army was well equipped thanks to arrangements between the American and French governments. 3-YEAR MARRIAGES FOR FRANCE AFTER THE WAR?

PARIS, DEC. 17.—(By mail)—While controversy still rages around the problem of providing husbands for the young women of France after the war, French psychologists and economists have indignantly rejected any suggestion of the adoption of the principle of "ersatz" or substitute as put forth in Germany.

Without exactly suggesting an application of the law of "ten years of polygamy," proclaimed by the German princes at the conclusion of the Thirty Years' War, Professor Karl Fage, of Cologne, has evolved a plan of an "ersatz marriage" which he declares should be countenanced by the authorities, if the German citizens killed off by the war are to be replaced and the nation to be repopulated

In his pamphlet on the subject Professor Fage declared the problem incapable of solution thru the simple expedient of a campaign against bachelors, which would give no results. Therefore, he declares, the only way is to attract the young men of the country to the women of marriageable age, but only such young men as are already possessed of a wife. Obviously there will be insufficient husbands for the numerous maidens, all of whom are entitled to their inalienable right of becoming wives and mothers. Consequently it is necessary that women of all classes who have passed a certain age shall not only be authorized by law to contract an "ersatz marriage" but shall be encouraged in the search for a husband who appeals personally to them.

The object of their affections may not be other than a man who has a wife and then only with the consent of his legitimate wife. The mothers of any offspring of such marriages are to have the right to a special insignia of their patriotic sentiments and of "an alliance closer than that of legitimate marriage." Such "marriages" may be dissolved, if the contracting parties so wish, upon the birth of a child. To be doubly sure that the "marriages" would not be looked down upon the originator of the idea declares it should also have the hearty support of the clergy, whose adhension to the principles outlined should also be proclaimed by the Government.

"There," declares Pierre Mille, a widely known French writer, "is the unmistakable Germanic touch. The Government is to be called in to regulate the clergy in their opinions, to reform and remould the human mind, to recreate the instincts that have been born into each human being. Everyone knows that the question of husbands for our young girls is a serious one for France, a question that is almost impossible of honorable solution. Our respect for traditions and our idealism forbid that we touch upon or interfere with the married state.

"It would appear that in Germany the only duty one may ever recognize is to obey the dictates of the Government. The imperial directions are to be imposed upon man's most intimate life, upon his religion. The Kaiser is to discern between vice and virtue. The reasoning is so brutally German that it merely resolves itself into the following: 'We, the German military party, who, with the Emperor, by divine right are the masters of the German Empire, judge it fit and proper to institute polygamy. Thus the clergy must preach polygamy!'"

At the same time a tremendous campaign has been carried on here by Dr. D. Robert De Simone, an Italian physician, who was Dr. Alexis Carel's assistant at the Rockefeller Institute in New York, and who has gained considerable fame both as an author and a playwright, for the introduction of and the legalizing of "contract marriages" for a period of three years. Dr. De Simone has asserted in numerous articles in the press that such a solution of France's problem is not only possible but practicable. His plan is for the contracting parties to be at liberty to dissolve or continue their union at the conclusion of the three years. Any issue of the marriage is to be cared for by the State in the event of the mother and father being unwilling to assume responsibility the parents to be obliged to devote a percentage of their earnings to the education and maintenance of the children.

BOND BUYERS ANXIOUS FOR THE NEW 4'S

"When can we get our bonds?" is the question which local bankers are being asked by subscribers to the second Liberty Loan.

The 4% bonds of the second Liberty Loan are now being delivered as rapidly as possible, in accordance with a regular schedule, arranged with a view of justice to all concerned. Deliveries are intended to be made to all banks in any one city or town simultaneously. Shipments are constantly being received from Washington by the Fourth Federal Reserve bank, Cleveland, but the bank is often short of denominations most in demand, and this is the chief cause for such delay as is occuring.

The Conversion Bonds have only begun to be received from Washington by the Reserve bank. The supply on hand is very small. It was thot only fair to deliver the 4% Bonds of the Second Loan to subscribers first, doubtless because these bonds are the first official evidence of their investment, whereas in the case of the Conversion Bonds, the subscribers to the First Loan at least had the opportunity to secure interim certificates, and in most cases had delivery of such certificates.

The sale of the Second Liberty Loan has necessitated the issuance by the Bureau of Engraving and Printing of probably twenty million individual bonds, which is a tremendous undertaking, and deliveries must therefore necessarily be slow. It is an additional evidence of patriotism for subscribers to be patient, and they can be assured that every effort is being made at Washington and at Cleveland to get the bonds into their hands at the earliest possible moment.

It is impossible for the Cleveland Bank to deliver any more rapidly than it is, and special requests cannot be given attention with fairness to all concerned. Furthermore, the situation is such that no definite assurance can be given as to the date when any particular delivery can be made, because the reserve bank does not know from day to day whether it will have on hand enough of the desired denominations.

CASH IN YOUR LIBERTY BONDS

There probably is a large number of people in Coshocton county who patriotically responded to the call of their country for money to help win the war, and bought a Liberty Bond, but as their means were limited, a Fifty, or One Hundred dollar bond was purchased at that time, and now feel that they would rather have the investment in something which they can use right along, instead of the $2.00 to $4.00 yearly interest on these bonds. If so it is perfectly legitimate for you to exchange your bond for any other commodity you desire. By your purchase, you have helped your country raise the sum of money necessary to equip our boys for foreign military service, and that was the object of the bond sale, and now at Christmas time if you are short of ready cash or feel that you do not care to keep your bonds, we will exchange anything in our line of Diamonds, Watches, Silverware or other goods and allow you the full face value of your bond, and as this is a trade transaction, we will pay you five percent extra, or in other words will allow you one dollar and five cents for each dollar, that your bond calls for, and have more than your whole year's interest in advance. Just bring your bond to Brooke's Jewelry store, and it will be accepted the same as cash on any purchase you make plus the five percent additional.

Easy to Make This Pine Cough Remedy

Thousands of families swear by its prompt results. Inexpensive, and saves about $2.

You know that pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is that pine contains several peculiar elements that have a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest. Pine is famous for this purpose.

Pine cough syrups are combinations of pine and syrup. The "syrup" part is usually plain granulated sugar syrup. Nothing better, but why buy it? You can easily make it yourself in five minutes.

To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2½ ounces of Pinex (60 cents worth) in a pint bottle, and fill up with home-made sugar syrup. This gives you a full pint—more than you can buy ready-made for $2.50. It is pure, good and very pleasant—children take it eagerly.

You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same—inflamed membranes—and this Pinex and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 24 hours or less. Splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, hoarseness, or any ordinary throat ailment.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is famous the world over for its prompt results.

Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

"OVER THE SEA TO PERSHING"

The following poem is contributed by Clara B Cook, of Plainfield:

"OVER THE SEA TO PERSHING"

Over the sea to Pershing
Hear the Nation's call,
Uncle Sam we're going,
We shall fight or fall
Ho! you little Sammie
You must do your best
So the little Frenchmen
Can all have a rest

Over the sea to Pershing
You must bid goodbyes
And your dear old mothers
Soon shall dry their eyes
Kiss your little sweethearts
Promise you'll be true
When the war is over
She'll be proud of you

Over the sea to Pershing
Goodbye, ye many friends
We'll have peace with honor
Or shall fight until the end
Don't forget to write us
When we're far across the seas
Only wait and trust us
We shall win the victory.

Over the sea to Pershing
Hear the battle cry
Over the sea to Pershing
We shall win or die.
See this band of soldiers,
We're both brave and strong
We shall whip the Kaiser
It won't take us long.

New Railway Legislation Is Deferred

WASHINGTON, DEC. 17—There will be no new railway legislation for many weeks to come, if at all. Dissension in Congress will delay any proposed program, the White House was told today.

As a result it is expected the President will postpone his prosed visit to the Capitol to discuss the situation until after the Xmas holidays. There still wa sthe bare chance that he would ask for a joint session this afternoon or tomorrow but leaders felt fairly confident that he would wait a couple of weeks at least.

It is understood the president's program as now decided upon is as follows:

To name a federal administrator of railroads to take supreme control of the operation of the railroads under provisions of the act of 1906. This administrator would have powers under executive orders signed by the President to operate the roads as a unit, divert freight as he pleased, and to pool rolling stock and possibly revenues. The administrator when named would operate the roads thru the medium of the operating committee of vice presidents.

To allow official legislation, which is not essential, to wait until congress had time to fully inform itself on the subject.

For the position of railroad administrator nearly every member of the cabinet, but especially Secretaries McAdoo and Lane; Former President Taft, President Hadley, of Yale; Controller Williams, Chas. E. Hughes, Daniel Willard and a score of others, have been mentioned. Only the President, however, knows whom he really has in mind.

CANADIANS VOTE ON CONSCRIPTION

(International News Service)

MONTREAL, DEC 17—More than two million Canadian men and women including others on the front in France are voting today on conscription. The Canadians also are voting to determine whether the Union Government headed by Sir Robert Borden which enacted the conscription law or the liberals led by Sir Wilfred Laurier who oppose operation of the draft act shall govern the dominion. The Liberalists are confident of victory. The women relatives of the soldiers were recently enfranchised and are casting their initial vote today.

The unionists has based their fight for reelection clearly on the issue of conscription. They have sounded a warning that defeat of conscription at this time would be construed by the soldiers at the front as meaning that their own people are deserting them.

Goes to Death with Girl's Name on Lips

(International News Service)

PEMBROKE ONT DEC 17 "Tell her I died like a man." With this pathetic expression on his lips, William Bennett, twenty-one, of Montreal, who shot and killed Bruce M Leitch a soldier went to his death here this morning.

On December 7 a jury found a verdict of guilty against the boy for the murder of Leitch, who won the girl Bennett loved. Bennett also seriously wounded the girl, and then destroyed his own eyesight with a bullet. Upon receiving the verdict, he said to the Court:

"I will die like a man!"

He wanted the girl reminded that he had died without a qualm. He had evinced no desire for life since the day of the tragedy.

America Creates French Poster Design

(International News Service)

PARIS DEC 17—Ridgway Knight, the American painter, whose works are known on both sides of the Atlantic, has achieved another notable success in a design for a poster for the new French loan which has been adopted by the Government and now adorns the walls and [illegible] of P.

[illegible] a bold modification of the painting "Le Bas de Laine," the original of which was purchased by Jane McLean of New York, and which portrays an old peasant and his wife counting the pieces of silver they have treasured up in an old woolen stocking (bas de laine, [illegible] significant of saving) the artist represents the peasant hastening to carry his savings to subscribe for national defense bonds, while his wife looks on affectionately.

Mr Knight, who is now seventy-eight years of age, was born in Philadelphia. A number of his works are in the museum of that city among them "Les Laveuses" and "L'Appel au P[illegible]," while a number of others have been presented by Brooklyn, Milwaukee and New York, most notably among the latter, "La Grande Soeur." The artist is an officer of the Legion of Honor and has turned his chateau at Poissy into a home for convalescent French soldiers and refugees. His only grievance against France is that the people persist in calling him Monsieur [illegible] or Monsieur Ke-necent.

Letters from the BOYS

P. C. Adams, who is the U. S. Superintendent of construction on the new Federal Building now being built in Coshocton, Ohio, received a letter from his son, Ralph E. Adams, who has been a wireless operator on the Pacific coast under the Civil Service for the last year in which he describes conditions there. The letter follows:

U. S. Steamship, on the Pacific Coast.
December 10th, 1917.

Dear Folks at Home:

I wrote you recently that the U. S. Steamship Madrona had been taken over by the government. All the officers joined the reserve and are still aboard; the crew did not join, so reservists are on board; all farmers or landsmen, and most of them had never been to sea before. She has been taken over more than a week and hasn't left dock yet—the crew is too green—and the cook can't cook; on deck one is a Pendleton Dentist, another a fruit farmer, another a football star at University of California, etc. Our ship is larger and better in every way.

I am not in the Army or Navy, but in the NAVAL AUXILLARY RESERVE; that means for duty aboard ships of the merchant type, such as troop and supply ships. The card I received says "I'm in the Naval Coast Defense Reserves." My rating is "Chief Electrician, Radio." There are two classes of electricians: general, and radio. Chief electrician is a chief petty officer, highest in rank of the non-commissioned officers, the next higher rank being that of warrant officer, and bears a commission. Sailors are rated as "Landsmen": 3rd. 2nd, and 1st class wear the sailor clothes with blouse, open throat, and bell bottom pants. Chiefs wear the double breasted coats, white laundered collar (like civilians) and pants cut like civilians wear, and a uniform cap similar to that I have been wearing, except it has no gold braid on it. Enrollment is for four years, and in times of no war one can work ashore or wherever he likes, except that if you go out of the 12th Naval District you have to notify those in charge.

I was called to active service, and retained on this ship, on the 5th instant. I am allowed $60 to fit out my first uniform, but I will not be able to fit out for that amount, so I will supply the difference out of my own pocket. I am having a suit of clothes made at $37 and am to try it on Wednesday the 12th instant. I have a pair of woolen blankets that cost $12.00 plus. We are now under navy discipline. The bunch on here are a pretty fine bunch of fellows; lots of them are college graduates and some have a business of their own. It sure seems funny for me to be eating down in the forecastle, but now that I am an enlisted man I cannot eat with the commissioned officers. The eats are about the same, excepting a little shy on sweets and is not served with as much style. I can see that the bi for candy and sweet stuff from now on will be larger than before.

Saturday night I was eating next to a fellow who was in dungerees, (Naval overalls and jumper) all covered with coal dust, and looked about like some tramp alongside a railroad flatcar, and during our talk he asked me if I would go up town with him, but was headed for the Y. M. C. A. gym and declined. Well, after he had washed and got into his "Blues" he was met on the dock by his own private car driven by a chauffeur. Another fellow is the son of a Pasadena millionaire, and today he is hustling coal sacks ashore. Another man owns a motor transfer business in Oakland, Cal., and has a man running it for him while he is escaping the army draft by joining the naval reserve. So we have a classy bunch aboard here. I don't know much about many of the fellows yet except they are congenial and good natured, and regular fellows. Quite a few fellows on here enlisted from Los Angeles, and Sacramento expecting to be aboard power cruisers that they or their friends owned, and to be used as submarine chasers; later it was found out that the government could not use these launches, and in different way they had to volunteer for general service aboard any of the ships where they were required.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

A few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur bring back its vigor, color, gloss and youthfulness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully wark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, tho, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, soevenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this thru your hair(taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

BUY THAT AUTO NOW; OLDFIELD GIVES REASONS

PRODUCTION OF CARS CERTAIN TO BE CUT: ASSERTS THERE IS NO PROBABILITY OF GASOLINE SHORTAGE.

By Barney Oldfield.

BUY NOW. If you are thinking of purchasing a motor car, don't delay. Make up your mind just what you wish and act accordingly.

You will save yourself money. You will be able to get the car that meets your requirements and to get it without having to wait a long time.

I have been more or less astounded by the turn of events in the motor world recently. Prices have risen so swiftly that it is difficult to keep track of advances. More than that, production has decreased and is decreasing constantly.

What has happened is little more than the beginning of what may be expected. Cars are going to be scarce in a short time. The more costly the car the scarcer it will be. BBut production of all grades is due for a cut.

The wise ma nwill take my advice. I know what I am talking about. I have been in close contact with many leading spirits of the motor industry and learned their arrangements. Prudence dictates the words I am repeating—BUY NOW. To make selection easy 1918 cars are now being shown.

Aside from the general trend of the industry, the government has stepped into the game. Washington officials have already cut deeply into the smooth running arrangements of manufacturers. More cuts are in line for the immediate future. These will be sure enough cuts.

Cars will be continued. Factories will not be closed. But production will be cut. Details are now being worked out by men representing the industry and the war industries board

Prices of Material Advancing.

Prices of all essentials in the manufacture of cars have been shooting upward for three years. The end is not in sight by any means. But more than that, materials are becoming scarce. The government is calling for a larger and larger percentage. It will continue to increase its demands. And Uncle Sam comes first.

Already the war industries board has cut the supply of freight cars materially. Its order prohibits the shipping of automobiles or materials in open cars that might be used for coal. The industry has been taxed 3 per cent of wholesale costs. But now the board proposes to go further and cut production.

The only answer to these steps will be shortage of cars and advances in prices. So if you intend to own a car BUY NOW.

In its arrangement to reduce the production of cars the government will take care of the manufacturers thru using their plants for the production of war materials. Great portions of many automobile factories will be made to turn out munitions. The stockholders of the companies probably will not suffer any material loss nor will the industry be destroyed thru the reduction of production.

The steel which would ordinarily go into cars will be utilized for shells, etc. Everyone will be protected against loss except the man who wants a car. He will be made to pay more. The farmer and the small town man who needs a car in his business will feel this change. The demand for cars from the farmer has steadily increased. He does not need a limousine or sedan, but wants his touring car, roadster or semitruck. He cannot afford to do without it.

My advice to him, especially, is to BUY NOW.

PUTS STOMACH IN FINE CONDITION

Says Indigestion Results from an Excess of Hydrochloric Acid.

Undigested food delayed in the stomach decays, or rather, ferments the same as food left in the open air, says a noted authority. He also tells us that Indigestion is caused by Hyperacidity, meaning, there is an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach which prevents complete digestion and starts food fermentation. Thus everything eaten sours in the stomach much like garbage sours in a can, forming acrid fluids and gases which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. Then we feel a heavy, lumpy misery in the chest, we belch up gas, we eructate sour food or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead, get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and drink while it is effervescing and furthermore, to continue this for a week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure indigestive juices.

Jads Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salts is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.

A FOOLISH ACT CAUSES FROZEN FEET

A prominent resident of Coshocton will profit by the experience he gained during the zero weather this week, his wife like all good wives in the city is very enthusiastic on war conservation and meatless days and wheatless days, are duly observed in this home, also his life partner believes in these days of high cost of all commodities in saving all she can at the buying end of her household economies, Chrismas being only a few days further along in the calendar, she instructed her husband to purchase certain articles she desired for this occasion, and told him where she want him to buy them, but on the way down street he forgot where his wife had told him to go, and went from one store to another until finally his feet were frosted badly. His wife consoles him by saying, that she told him plainly to go to Brooke's Jewelry store for their holiday goods, where she has always gone, but he didn't pay attention to what I said to him and got his feet frozen, and also paid a higher price for every article he bought besides, and that hereafter she would wager that he would not get cold feet, in making Christmas purchases.

Tener Sticks To Prexy Job

(International News Service)

NEW YORK DEC 18—President J. K. Tener of the National League today put a quietus on rumors to the effect that he intends to resign the office to which he was recently re-elected He said that his position regarding the league has changed and that he will devote as much time as possible to its affairs.

The prediction that Mr. Tener stands prepared to resign before the schedule meeting in February credited to Augustus Herrmann, is not taken seriously by baseball men here. It is the belief, however, that should the club owners agree on some candidate who can devote his whole time to the duties of the office of president that Tener will gladly step out. He was said to have made this plain at the time of his reelection tho no official confirmation of the fact was made at the time.

No Christmas gift is more useful at this time than a muffler. D. O. Thompson is showing a beautiful line at 59c, 69c, 98c, $1.50 to $3.50.

COUNTY RESPONDS GENEROUSLY TO RED CROSS SOLICITORS

By HELEN BROWN

The Red Cross Chirstmas drive for 15,000,000 members is on. Tremendous enthusiasm is manifest. The results of the first day's solicitation in Coshocton county were gratifying in the extreme. Bright and early Monday morning solicitors were "on the job" and they stayed on all day. They will stay on every day until the campaign ends and every home in Coshocton county is given an opportunity to fly a Red Cross Service Flag.

Reports sent in to local headquarters Monday night emphasized splendidly the Red Cross spirit which is being manifested in the county. Solicitors reported that they were in almost every case not only cordially welcomed but expected; the dollars were waiting for them.

The strong impetus with which the campaign has started is tremendously encouraging to the executive committee—but more than that is a remarkable indication of the patriotism and loyalty of Coshocton county.

If your home has not been visited it will be before the week is over. When the solicitor comes remember the wonderful opportunity being offered you—an opportunity to become one of fifteen million active partners in the war relief work of this great organization of mercy! An opportunity to become one of fifteen million Americans paying one dollar each to show their appreciation of the service the boys in khaki are doing for them and for the world.

Coshocton county's campaign for 6,600 members has begun magnificently; responses the first day, the second day are large but the campaign cannot be waged to a successful conclusion without your co-operation. This is a campaign not primarily for money but for service. The idea behind it is to show the men at the front—and the enemy across No Man's Land that it is not only the armed forces of America which are fighting but that behind those splendid ranks are 15,000,000 American men and women ready for any service which they may be called upon to give.

Be ready for the Red Cross Solicitors when they come. They present you this Christmas tide with a wonderful opportunity for service.

GERMAN FINANCES

The president of the German Reichsbank said last year that when the interest on Germany's indebtedness became equal to her annual increase of wealth the empire would be on the point of collapse.

If that was true—and nobody with a smattering of financial knowledge can help seeing that it must be true—Germany is already near that point.

It was estimated by Germany's financial experts before the war that the nation's wealth increased at the rate of $2,000,000,000 a year.

German's national debt before the war was about $5,000,000,000. State debts were $4,000,000,000. Possibly several billions should be added for municipal debts, but to be moderate, call the total public indebtedness $10,000,000,000.

The German chancellor a few days ago stated that the seven previous war loans totaled 73,000,000,000 marks, and asked for a new credit of 15,000,000,000 marks. Inasmuch as German credits are spent before they are raised, for practical purposes we may call Germany's present bonded war debt $22,000,000,000.

There must also be considered $2,000,000,000 of notes issued by the Reichsbank, $1,500,000,000 issued by the war loan banks, and $5,000,000,000 of treasury certificates. There may be other big obligations outstanding, but these suffice to show Germany's precarious financial situation.

It seems certain that the public debt already saddled on the German people amounts to somewhere near $40,000,000,000.

The New York World figures an annual interest charge on present obligations of about $1,500,000,000. The New York Times says that it cannot be much below the $2,000,000,000 mentioned.

"Perhaps no living nation," says the Times, "was ever in such desperate financial stress." Subscriptions to the seven war loans have fallen 20,000,000,000 marks short of the credits voted. The government has been driven to every sort of device, from issuing notes in billions, after the manner of Mexican revolutionists to borrowing from neutrals under threats and offering 15 per cent discount for credits outside the empire. The mark has fallen to a ruinous level in neighboring countries.

It seems impossible that Germany's present war debt should ever be paid. It is impossible to see how the interest on it can be paid except from further borrowings. This is a short road to bankruptcy. And the cost of the war is mounting up faster than ever.

No wonder Germany is trying to force a decision of the war this winter. If she fails to win, and win quickly, financial collapse is sure. And that would probably bring military and political collapse.

BY COMPARISON
BY WALT MASON

When anything goes wrong with me, I don't rear up and curse, but think of chaps across the sea, who suffer nine times worse. I have rheumatics in my bones, these marrowbones of mine, and sometimes I would hand out groans, and shed some tears of brine; and then I think of men who fight in trenches far away; they crouch in water thru the night, and toil thru mud by day. They have so many kinds of aches, so many cores and sprains, they think rheumatic twinges fakes, mere imitation pains. Then I'm ashamed to roar and beef, and cuss my luck ill-starred; I take my little unborn grief and plant it in the yard. Sometimes depression comes along, and bends down my soul. I feel that things are going wrong, and comets in the hole. Presentiments of coming ill thru all my being flow; and then I think of Kaiser Bill, who's cornered human woe. How long would any ill of mine compare with ills of his? At once the sun begins to shine, and I remark, "Gee whiz!" The more I may feel misfortune's prod, affliction's jolt and jar, if you will only look abroad, you'll see how blest you are.

New York Day-By-Day
By O. O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, DEC. 18—[illegible] New Rochelle there is the quaintest house in [illegible] by Briggs. It has only recently been finished [illegible] Clare Briggs, the cartoonist [illegible] Wisconsin.

Architecturally the house is a refutation of the charge of the serious [illegible] that the makers of comic pictures have no artistic sense, for the Briggs home is perhaps one of the most artistic in the East.

The house is of old English design and is built from ancient ship timbers.

It rests on a knoll in a picturesque ravine giving a wide sweep of the beautiful Westchester countryside.

To its owner it is known as Blue Anchor. The massive front door hewn from a ship's rudder takes the visitor back to the days of pirates bold and one instantly has a desire to get before the big open fire-place and read "Treasure Island."

The living room floor is of ship beams, fashioned roughly and plugged with oakum. Another attractive spot is the Briggs' bedroom, encased in glass underneath which is a series of waterfalls that ripple gently toward the Sound.

Down in the basement is the billiard parlor, filled with maritime antiques that were picked up by the cartoonist on sundry tours of the water fronts. On the walls are old prints, out of perspective, depicting disasters at sea and types of seamen who go around the Horn on wind jammers.

There is the tang of the sea in every nook. The home has attracted many other notables to Avon Road on which Blue Anchor is situated. A few doors away is Montague Glass, the author, who dubbed a group of visitors at the Briggs' maritime home a bunch of "New Rochelle Salts." Across the field is Arthur Crawford who has made a fortune giving ideas to artists. His "Pla A C" is known on many comic weekly pages. Jerome Kern, the musical comedy composer, tired of trying to buy the Briggs' house, is going to build one as near like it as possible a half mile away—and then he can stand on his front porch and yell to Briggs: "Yahoo! C'mon over Skinney!"

Introducing the griddle girl: Those lordly personages who flipped flapjacks behind plate glass windows in the white tiled Child's restaurants—known to Broadway as Cafes Au Faunt—were missing last week and in their places stood young girls with daintier and perhaps defter gloved hands.

It was a strike and not the exigencies of war which made necessary this last call on the womanhood of the city. When the griddle jacks quit the waitresses heroically stepped into the breach and saved the day for Park Row's hungry hosts. It was high time, for the city's pride in its lords of the griddle standing white clad and noble in the expanse of purity about them, has been sadly shaken these last months.

The spectacle has become irritating rather than inspiring. When women were working with pickaxes and baggage trucks on our railroads and the daughters of the subway guards and trolley car conductors are battling with the rush hour crowds in our public conveyances, it has become a farce to retain men for the trivial task of flipping flapjacks.

Turf information bureaus are springing up in the office buildings of Broadway. It hards back to the days of "Maxim and Gay" when a former newspaper reporter ran a bank roll of $7 up to a million by giving "feed box information" to the public.

The ex-reporter is a respectable broker now who laughs at the enthusiastic enterprise of his youth. He paid his last $7 for an ad in the Morning Telegraph declaring that a certain horse would run and win. The horse did win at long odds and he was besieged with orders for tips at two dollars a throw.

THE "BLOOD AND IRON" POLICY

Is important in peace as well as in war. Every man and woman who would be a winner and not a slacker should have the strength of iron in the blood.

The new iron tonic, Peptiron, combines this valuable metal in medicinal form so that it is easily digested and readily assimilated. Peptiron also includes pepsin, nux, celery, gentian and other tonics,—sedatives for the nerves, digestives and carminatives — a health-giving medicine in convenient pill form.

Take it for anemia or thin blood, paleness, nerve debility, brain-fag. One or two Peptiron after each meal will quickly tell a story of marvellous results. Get it today.

PEOPLE'S FORUM

DENIES BEING DISLOYAL

Editor The Tribune:

I cannot refrain from writing a line in answer to an article written by R. W. Timmons, published in the People's Forum in which he says that I am disloyal. It is a poor sign to hear a man boast of his own loyalty and patriotism. He signs his article, A Loyal Citizen. He criticizes our liberal, broad minded editor for printing my letter, insinuating it is all right to publish his productions but should ignore any body that differs from him. I think he considers everybody a crank that does not believe as he does.

He quotes from some banker who says after deducting his household expenses he will give all his profits to the war. I would to God there were more such bankers.

I will quote from another wealthy banker in New York, who said: "Let the rising generation pay the expenses of this war as they will reap the benefit of it."

Yes, let the rising generation pay it. Mr Timmons seems to be trying to champion the cause of the wealthy. Abraham Lincoln says: "Class laws, placing capitol above labor, are more dangerous than slavery." Lincoln also says he fears that the money power will work on the prejudices of the people until wealth is centered in the hands of the few and our republic, destroyed.

God grant that my fears may prove groundless, but isn't it coming to pass?

When Rome went down, 1800 men owned the world. When Babylon went down, 25 percent of her population owned all the wealth. When Egypt went down, 2 percent of her population owned 97 percent of her wealth.

In 1860 there were only two millionaires in the United States and no tramps. How is it today? They say Morgan has made more money since the war commenced than his father did all his life. My opponent goes on the plan, God help the rich, the poor can beg.

J. Pierpont Morgan was greater than many a king, had more money and wielded more power. No court dared to enforce the law against him. If he wanted a law from Congress he bot it. If a law of Congress was in his way, he repealed it or had some federal judge to pronounce it unconstitutional.

This has been done, is being done and no doubt, will be done.

Over 200 years ago Sir Harry Vane, the first statesman that ever proclaimed the doctrine of liberty of conscience, the first to preach the doctrine that the people were the real rulers; the government the mere servant of the people, was tried for treason, was condemned to death.

Here is the decision which a court passed upon him: that he should be hanged, cut down while living, his body cut open, his bowels burned before his face, his head severed from his body, and his body cut into four quarters. But out of his gracious mercy, His Majesty, King Charles II remitted all the sentence except the part which required Vane's head to be cut off. Just because he said the people should be the real rulers. The same doctrine, I am advocating today. The will of the people should be the supreme law of the land.

But we are puny, degenerate, descendants of the heroes of freedom. We calmly look on while a few masters in the great money centers dictate our laws and violate our constitution. And we fold our hands in abject discouragement because our very efforts to regain control of the government are not crowned with success.

Another fellow by the name of Cochran, wrote an article in the same strain as Timmons. The paper has been mislaid and all I remember is, that the rich men's sons that have gone to war have received better positions because of ability. He goes on the plan that the fellow did when a politician was running for congress. Someone said he was not qualified. "What, not qualified?" another fellow said. "Why, he is worth a cool million." That seems to be all the qualification needed.

Does any friend know that William Pitt, the great English statesman was buried at public expense? Mirabeau, the Tribune of France, died insolvent, was buried at public expense? Henry Clay was indebted to a subscription among his friends for the preservation of his home. Thomas Jefferson died insolvent; General Lee taught school in his old age for a living; and hundreds of our best men were poor, yet Mr. Cochran seems to think a rich man's son is better qualified than our poor boys.

He says the rich are losing by this war. Instead, today there are three times as many persons in the United States drawing incomes of 1,000,000 a

Man-Building for War-Winning and World-Reconstruction

There is a time to tear down and a time to build up. Our nation is now taking part in a vast engineering feat to destroy from the earth a machine which is irresponsible to conscience, based on a philosophy exalting the sword into the throne and making war a religion. When the field is tread and the ground is cleared, then comes the great task of rebuilding.

The world is now malleable as never before. Humanity is like the meal in which a woman hid the leaven, ready to be shaped and molded by human hands. The nations must be remolded by Christian hands.

Whence are the trained leaders and statesmen of the future to come? Mount Union College purposes to train her quota of leaders for world-reconstruction. Greater attendance and increased cost of maintenance make necessary an appeal to the public for $750,000 by midnight, Thursday, December 29. Over $400,000 have been pledged on condition that the whole amount is subscribed by that date.

Subscriptions may be paid in five annual installments, beginning March 1, 1918. Liberty Bonds are accepted for endowment. Write or telegraph your pledge at once. PRES. WILLIAM H. McMASTER

HOUSE ADOPTS

Sheppard has strong hopes, however, that no objection would be made to the immediate consideration of the resolution. There is a possibility the senate may balk, changing the time limit for ratification of the amendment from 6 to 7 years The resolution with the 6 year provision, went thru the senate by a scant two thirds vote last summer. Lately there has been much talk about the senate over the advisability of submitting nationwide prohibition to the states, with the political turmoil that would ensue, while the nation is trying to present a united front against Germany. It is just barely possible that a sufficient number of senators might change their minds and reverse the action of the upper house

"I have every confidence that the senate will concur in the action of the house promptly," said Senator Sheppard today

His predictions on prohibition have been unusually accurate in the past.

WASHINGTON, DEC 18—The resolution to submit to the states a National prohibition amendment to the Federal Constitution was adopted late Monday by the House, with a vote of more than two-thirds required for its approval. The vote of the House announced by Speaker Clark was 282 to 128, or 25 more than required.

A wild demonstration took place in the House. W. J. Bryan appeared on the floor and took a seat with Representative Webb as co-recipient of congratulations.

A similar resolution was passed by the Senate at the last session, but the House resolution gives the state legislatures seven years in which to approve the amendment while that of the Senate gives six.

An amendment by Representative Lea of California providing that prohibition provisions should not apply to light wines and beer was rejected by a rising vote of 232 to 107

Congressmen emerged from under veritable waves of telegrams from "back home" when they came into the House chamber to vote. The galleries were packed with enthusiasts from both sides of the question, come prepared for a field day. There was much conferring among the generals on the floor as the debate got under way with the time equally divided between the two sides.

Both Sides Advance Views

Representative Gardner of Ohio, leading the opposition, declared the amendment proposed an invasion of the police power of the estates and threatened the unanimity of the American people in winning the war. The great body of Americans, he contended, want to leave the whole matter just as it is now.

Dozens of members made short speeches, going over the familiar ground on which champions of both sides have fought their battles in the halls of Congress for many years. The only new argument introduced was the war issue.

COLUMBUS, DEC. 18—Enactment of the congressional prohibition resolution means that the next political campaign in Ohio will be the hottest on record, because the Ohio drys will endeavor to elect a legislature which will make Ohio one of the 36 states needed to make the nation dry by ratifying the proposed amendment.

Already drys have decided upon submitting another referendum to make Ohio dry, independent of nation-wide action, which may not be completed until seven years have elapsed. The state legislature as now composed would not ratify the national measure, because the senate is wet. Besides, a special session of the legislature would be necessary to force a vote on the proposition, and this will be prevented if the drys have their way.

Once endorsed, succeeding legislature cannot overturn the state's action, altho if the wets should win, the measure could be brot up again at a succeeding legislature.

GARFIELD ASKS MINERS TO WORK THRU HOLIDAYS

WASHINGTON, DEC. 18—Fuel Administrator Garfield this afternoon sent an urgent appeal to the coal operators and miners thruout the country urging them to continue operations during the Xmas holidays. Suspension of mining, even for a single day, he pointed out, would be disastrous to the country which is now facing a serious coal famine. If the mines are idle for even a single day it means the loss of 2,000,000 tons of coal and it is for this reason that the fuel administrator asks that the usual lay-off of several days for the holidays be suspended this year.

City subscribers should insist on a receipt from the carrier.

A BRIGHT SPOT IN THE DAY'S NEWS

Eight gamblers were arraigned before Judge Quinn at Canton.

In the raid a pot of $102 had been confiscated.

The judge gave the men their choice of paying $10 fines and costs, or contributing $50 to the Red Cross.

The gamblers chose the latter course.

So 50 Red Cross memberships were distributed to the poor children in one of the schools.

The fines were suspended.

Thus was justice done.

year, as there were on Dec. 1, 1916. Does that look like the rich were losing?

From the very bottom of our hearts we despise this doctrine that property makes the man. It's false, it's vicious, it's dangerous It tends to aristocracy and class divisions between man and man; between the poor and the rich.

Such a doctrine is at war with the principles of democracy, utterly repugnant to civil liberty.

Not charging by opponents with dishonesty or ignorance as they did me, believing they are sincere in their assertions, I would like to meet them at the proper time and place in a public discussion of these live issues Neither do I criticise the editor for publishing their views as we boast of free speech and a free press.

that some cause other than a natural one was responsible.

Suburban fire departments and employes on the estate, who hastily formed a bucket brigades, were powerless to check the spread of the flames and directed their efforts chiefly to saving art treasures stored in one of the wings. While thousands of persons attracted by the fire, stood helplessly outside the huge, locked iron gates, servants inside carried to safety furnishings that are said to be almost priceless They were brot to Cleveland today for storage.

The loss would have been greater, it was said, had not Mr. Rockefeller removed to his estate at Pocantico Hills, N. Y., the more valuable furnishings originally installed in his home here.

"Forest Hills" has been the property of the Rockefellers for 40 years. The palatial home destroyed last night stood on a tract of land containing approximately 1200 acres and was one of the show places of Cleveland. GERMAN OFFICER GETS CLEAN LINEN AND FLEES TO THE BRITISH LINES

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, DEC 18 —A story of how German officers are surrendering is told by an American officer just returned from the British front, where he had been undergoing instruction.

One night recently a German officer crawled across No Man's Land to the British wire raised his hands, and cried "Comrade!"

British soldiers covered him with rifles, whereupon the German said:

"Excuse me if I lower my hands; I've got a package here."

The surprised Britishers granted the request and the German dropped into the trench In his hands he had a package of laundry He said he had decided to surrender a week before, but had waited until his laundry came back

NEUTRAL DIPLOMATS GET HINTS KAISER WILL AGAIN OFFER PEACE

WASHINGTON, DEC 18.—Information received here today among neutral diplomats agrees with intimations from abroad that Germany is considering another offer of peace

LONDON, DEC 18—The Daily Telegraph prints a long statement of war aims and peace policies formulated by the parliamentary committee of the trades union congress and executive of the labor party, which is to be submitted for indorsement by all sections of the British labor movement at a conference at Westminster on December 28. The statement follows mainly the terms of a similar pronunciamento published and cabled abroad some months ago

The statement puts at the forefront a demand for restitution and rehabilitation of Belgium at the expense of Germany. It deals with Alsace-Lorraine, Italy, the Balkans, Poland, Turkey and German African colonies on lines similar to those suggested in earlier documents.

Richcreek Is Indicted

Henry Richcreek, aged 30, prominent Jackson township farmer has been indicted for failure to register under the selective service law last June The indictment was returned by the federal grand jury at Columbus Friday

Richcreek did not deny that he failed to register but claimed that he was past the registering age and was not compelled to do so Probate court records showed that he was but 30 years of age and therefore within the limits of the selective service. The federal grand jury indicted him upon the evidence of the records which were taken to Columbus by Probate Judge Milo Ely when the Grand Jury convened December 4.

Richcreek, if convicted of the crime will face a sentence similar to that of deserters. It is thot that if convicted he will probably be turned over to the military authorities for final disposition of his case.

U. S. NAVY MAY AID BRITISH IN THE NORTH SEA PATROL WORK

LONDON, DEC. 18—Demands for stronger patrols in the north sea to curb German raids led to an interesting but unconfirmed report today that American naval forces might re-inforce the British guard ships on duty in those waters.

The sinking of 14 ships by the Germans, three of them in British waters off the mouth of the Tyne river, show that the German navy is operating with impudent boldness and is now using large sized cruisers as well as submarines in its warfare upon mercantile shipping.

A naval court of inquiry has already begun an investigation of the sinking of a steamship and four trawlers, by four German destroyers. The British destroyer Pelew, which was damaged by German shell fire in the same action is now in a British port for repairs

The Germans carried out this raid with their usual despatch and ships carrying women were shelled and sunk. The women were rescued by British destroyers which went to the rescue

It is believed that a number of neutral sailors lost their lives, as five of the merchantmen were neutrals

An official statement by the German admiralty and picked up here, said that a number of prisoners, including four officers, were taken on board the German destroyers and carried back to a German port. It added that all of the German craft got back to their base.

Naval authorities believe that the German warships were operating from Heligoland as the danger of returning to Zeebrugge would have been too great.

Japanese Build Big Arsenal in Mexico

(International News Service)

TOKIO, DEC. 17—Having finished building a modern military arsenal for the Mexican government, from which 110,000 bullets are being turned out each day, Lieut. Kojiro Asai, an artillery officer of the Japanese army, has returned to Japan. He was in Mexico City eight months, being commissioned by President Carranza to build the arsenal

The Japanese army officer left here in January with twenty-four skilled workmen, a shipload of materials and a consignment of munitions for the Mexican government forces. With 200 Mexican workmen working night and day, the arsenal was finished in June and the Japanese returned after a trial of the arsenal showed that it was capable of turning out 110,000 bullets a day for use in internal troubles in Mexico

Bolsheviki Would Drench Russia In Blood If Need Be

(International News Service)

STOCKHOLM, DEC. 18.—A threat to drench Russia with blood if it is necessary to uphold Bolsheviki at Petrograd was continued in a speech made by Leon Trotzky the Bolsheviki foreign minister, according to a dispatch from Hapanaranda today. Trotzky and his colleague, Nicholai Lenine, are trying to source the patriotic forces in Russia by warning of a reign of terror and are making wholesale arrests.

The confusion in Russia is such that the outcome of the internal fight cannot be foreseen.

Another outbreak of fighting in the Russian civil war was reported from Southern Ukrania today. Bolsheviki troops tried to take over the garrison of Odessa but were driven off by the loyal Ukranian forces and suffered numerous casualties.
